

Friday, Nov. 11

First session, 1:00–3:15

Joseph Farrell and Cynthia Damon (Penn), Welcome and introduction, 1:00–1:15

Sander Goldberg (UCLA), "Ennius and the Fata librorum" 1:15–1:45

Virginia Fabrizi (Munich), "Philosophy, History, and Ennius' Annales" 1:45–2:15

Damien Nelis (Geneva), "Ennius, Callimachus and Hellenistic Epic" 2:15–2:45

Discussion 2:45–3:15

Break, 3:15–3:45

Second session, 3:45–5:45

Thomas Biggs (Georgia), "Generic Innovation and the Mediation of History in Naevius' Bellum Punicum and Ennius' Annales" 3:45–4:15

Ayelet Haimson-Lushkov (Texas), "Tria Corda: Ennius and the Place of Epic in Roman Historiography" 4:15–4:45

Jackie Elliott (Boulder), "Ennius and the Early Historians of Rome" 4:45–5:15

Discussion 5:15–5:45

Saturday, Nov. 12

First session, 10:30–12:30

Brian Breed (Amherst), "Ennius and Lucilius" 10:30–11:00

Jason Nethercut (USF Tampa), "How 'Ennian' Was Latin Epic Between Accius and Lucretius?" 11:00–11:30

Patrick Glauthier (Penn), "Ennius and the Birth of the Roman Monster" 11:30–12:00

Discussion 12:00–12:30

Lunch break, 12:30–1:30

Second session, 1:30–3:00

Lydia Spielberg (Nijmegen), "Illa quae versibus persecutus est Ennius: the Annales as source and model for historical speech" 1:30–2:00

A. J. Woodman (Virginia), "Ennius' Annales and Tacitus' Annals" 2:00–2:30

Discussion 2:30–3:00

Break, 3:00–3:15

Third session, 3:15–4:45

Jessica Clark (FSU), "The Annales as Historical Evidence in Ancient and Modern Commentaries" 3:15–3:45

Christina Kraus (Yale), "Commenting on the Annales: Steuart, Skutsch, and Ennius" 3:45–4:15

Discussion 4:15–4:45

Break, 4:45–5:00

Wrap-up 5:00–6:30

First reflections 5:00–5:15

Roundtable discussion 5:15–6:15

Concluding remarks 6:15–6:30