

KOLB FOUNDATION

Tenth Annual Kolb Senior Scholars Colloquium

"Voices of the Dead: A Global Perspective on the Archaeology of Death"

Friday, October 23, 2015

Widener Lecture Hall, Penn Museum

2:00–5:00 pm

2:00 Professor C. Brian Rose, Kolb Society of Fellows Faculty Coordinator

Introduction

2:15 Dr. Ellen Morris, Fellow

Assistant Professor in Classics and Ancient Studies at Barnard College, Columbia University

Retainer Sacrifice in Ancient Egypt and Elsewhere—Three Crucial Questions

2:45 Dr. Aubrey Baadsgaard Poffenberger, Fellow

Adjunct Assistant Professor in the Department of Anthropology at Gettysburg College

Death, Display, and Decadence: New Insights into Elite Funerary Ritual at Early Dynastic Ur

3:15 Break

3:30 Dr. Page Selinsky, Fellow

Lecturer in the Department of Anthropology at Penn and the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at Princeton University

Not a Proper Burial: Evidence of Celtic Ritual at Gordion, Turkey

4:00 Dr. Pamela Geller, Guest Speaker

Assistant Professor in the Department of Anthropology, University of Miami

Bio-power, Biohistory, and the Voiceless Dead: The Samuel G. Morton Collection

4:55: Final Questions and Comments