

ETERNAL SOLDIER

The Eternal Challenge of Homecoming

VETERANS HAVE TOLD US:

“...helped me make a connection to history in many very meaningful ways.”

“... married the experiences of ancient warriors to those experienced by veterans today in a way I was not expecting.
It was fascinating.”

Veterans Read Homer

Tuesdays 6:30-8:00p.m.

January 17-February 21, 2017

Penn Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology

www.penn.museum

3460 South Street, Philadelphia

Homer portrays the glorious achievements and painful losses of the battlefield, as well as the challenges faced by returning warriors and the civilians who wait for them at home.

The workshop will focus on the Odyssey, which tells of the hero Odysseus' return from war. Led by Dr. Sheila Murnaghan, Professor of Greek at the University of Pennsylvania, the workshop meets for six weekly sessions and is free to veterans.

Interested? Send an e-mail stating your interest to info@eternalsoldier.org. Space is very limited!

Visit our website: www.eternalsoldier.org

Like us on Facebook! www.facebook.com/EternalSoldierOrg

Follow us on Twitter: @Etrnsoldier

Visit our website! www.eternalsoldier.org